

GOVERNOR DECLINES TO SAVE MRS. WAKEFIELDWomen's Club Active That Slayer of Husband Shall Not Be Hanged.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 6.—Gov. Hilditch said yesterday that he would let the law take its course in the case of Mrs. Beattie Wakefield, who was sentenced to be hanged next March for complicity in the murder of her husband. However, the Governor's statement did not check the movement for the commutation of the woman's sentence.

The Women's Political Equality Club of this city is circulating a petition asking that the sentence be changed to life imprisonment. Mrs. Lee H. Hilditch, the Governor's wife, is a member of the club and said: "It is opposed to capital punishment and shall work for the commutation of Mrs. Wakefield's sentence. If women had the right to vote there would be no capital punishment."

Mrs. Terrence McDermott, another member, said: "I hope that Mrs. Wakefield will not be hanged and that the sentence will be commuted."
